Delivery & Return Policy

TO OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS:

Turkana Food is committed to providing each one of our customers with the best possible service and the best possible price. Keeping with that commitment, it is important that our customers have a clear understanding of how delivery and credit claim steps are performed by Turkana Food Inc.

Listed below are the procedures that must be followed. Failure to do so could result in a refusal by Turkana Food of any claims submitted for shortages, damages or other delivery exceptions.

Delivery instructions:

1. Turkana Food Inc provides door to door service to most of its customers. Due to any shipment will be unloaded by Turkana Food Inc driver at dedicated loading area of the customer only. The driver is not allowed to arrange further deliveries inside the stores, as it is not permissible with the current insurance policy of the company.
2. Customer should arrange goods receipt immediately or no more than 20 minutes from the time the driver came.
3. A responsible person from the customer side must be present while accepting the goods shipped.
4. The customer responsible person must check together with Turkana Food Inc driver, the goods delivered and verify the total cases on the Bill of Lading (BOL) / invoice.
5. This verification process must be done in the presence of the driver.
6. Once, above stated steps are done, the representative person must check "Counted Quantity" box at the bottom of the invoice and provide his/ her First and Last Name accompanied with signature or Goods Receipt corporate stamp with detailed information.
7. If it is not possible to check goods received on the delivery, customer must put a check mark to SUBJECT TO COUNT at the bottom of invoice accompanying his/ her First and Last Names or corporate Goods Receipt stamp. This is subject to chain stores only.
8. If the contents on the BOL/Invoice match the contents stated on the BOL/Invoice there are no exceptions, the customer must sign the BOL/Invoice.
9. The driver must also sign the document.
10. Turkana Food drivers are not allowed to except any cash. Only corporate checks are acceptable, and it should be noted on both copies on the BOL/Invoice. (Check #, date, amount)

Returns, Damaged Items, Shortages, Wrong Items:

From the current shipment and discovered while checking with the driver.

1. If it is discovered at the time of the check-in process that an item is missing, it must be verified by the driver and noted on the BOL/Invoice.

2. All damaged product is to be refused. The customer should not accept any damaged product. If an item is found to be damaged or not in salable condition, the customer must note the damage on the BOL/Invoice and must be confirmed by the driver.
3. If an item is found to be incorrect, it does not match the item ordered or invoice description, it must be noted on the BOL/Invoice. All incorrect items are to be refused.
4. If for any reason a delivery driver refuses to allow the customer to check the product it will be the responsibility of the customer to contact their salesperson immediately. The salesperson will contact the office and have them contact the driver to find out why he is refusing to allow the customer to verify the order. We will make sure to that the driver stays and assist the customer with the check-in process.
5. Items returned partially on the delivery subject to quantity deals will be changed back to original regular price on the customer account once credit refunded for partially returned items.

Return or credit related instructions from previous deliveries to the driver.
